Cost: $900. A non-refundable deposit of $450.00 is required at registration to reserve a spot and full payment is due at least 30 days before the class begins. We work to secure the best instructors and must arrange for their flights. There is a $150 administrative fee if you need to cancel or postpone within 30 days of the beginning of the course and a $150 penalty if all course fees are not paid at least 30 days prior to the beginning of the course. We do not offer any refunds; however, students may carry over course registration for a year.

Fee includes: Tuition, and refreshments and some light lunch and breakfast items.
(Please note accommodation is not included and must be arranged by the delegate)

Object of the course: To enable Qualified fitters to complete requirements for Professional Development and to offer education in subjects that are related to, but not always considered part of the official syllabus for saddle fit.

Criteria for attendance: Candidates will have an interest in the equine industry. The course is open to all retail and associated personnel in the saddlery trade, as well as those, seeking training in saddle fitting and repairs. Preference will be given to those who own or are employed by a business which is retailing, manufacturing, or saddle repairing. All Candidates must agree, in writing, to comply with our COVID-19 Policies for everyone's safety. A copy is available upon request.

All Candidates must have experience and be comfortable handling horses and must sign the liability waiver which acknowledges the inherent risk of working with and around horses.

All Candidates must be able to perform all essential parts of the job associated with saddle fitting.

All liability waivers and all essential job functions are available upon request.

Please Note: This course does not lead to a qualification; however, a confirmation of attendance will be presented, and candidates will be able to use this course towards CPD required hours.

Dress Code & Tools: Course attendees should come dressed in proper clothing and footwear suitable for working around horses, no loose, flappy clothing, hard soled sturdy boots that cover the ankle. No tools are needed for this course, but please feel free to bring any saddle questions!
